FRENCH BOURSE CLOSED BY GOVERNMENT

CHANCELLOR STATES BRITISH RESOURCES "FAIRLY ABUNDANT"

Sir John Simon Explains Necessity for Addition to Exchange Equalization Fund Approved by House of Commons — Large Scale Movement of Funds Exceptionally Rapid Now

LONDON, June 28 (P).—The House of Commons tonight approved the Government's proposal to add £200,000,000 (about $986,000,000) to the exchange equalization fund after a debate during which Sir John Simon, Chancellor of the Exchequer, stated the British financial situation "is very much better than it was."

The measure went through without division. A few minutes earlier a Labor amendment to limit the increase to £150,000,000 was defeated, 197 to 96.

FOR GOOD REASON

Winding up the debate, Sir John said: "We ask, and must ask, for this additional authority for good reasons connected with the international situation. . . . These are times when the movements of substantial funds are becoming, for the time being, exceptionally rapid."

"While these large-scale movements are taking place, the exchange equalization fund must be prepared to add to our gold holdings and avoid frequent wide fluctuations in our exchange rate now when gold is coming in and later when foreign owners call for its return," he said. He termed an "unfounded, ungenerous insinuation," the suggestion that the Government was "Continued on Page 2, Column 4"

BITTER BATTLE FOUGHT IN AIR

Spanish Plane Attacked by Alleged German—British Ship Rescues Four

VALENCIA, June 28 (P).—German-made seaplanes, the Defence Ministry announced tonight, attacked a Spanish Government coast patrol plane off Cape Palos at noon today.

The planes fought a bitter air battle, and the Government craft was set afire, with one of its crew killed, the ministry said.

The battle occurred about eighteen miles off Caragena, in the Mediterranean.

ATTACKED BY GERMAN

The Defence Ministry said: "At midday a Dornier plane from Alcazar was engaged in coast service was attacked northwest of Cape Palos by a bi-motor German seaplane, with which it entered into combat."

"During the fight the Loyalist (Government) Dornier was set afire. The British ship Naisela Manor rescued four crew members of the Loyalist plane and took them to Cartagena, where they entered a hospital."

"One was dead on arrival at the hospital. Another, whose injuries are as yet undetermined, remained in hospital. Two others, with slight wounds, were removed to Alcazar. "The chief of the airbase was instructed by the Defence Ministry to visit the captain of the British vessel and thank him in the name of the Government for his generous aid."

Nova Scotians To Elect Government

HALIFAX, June 28 (P).—Nova Scotians will turn out tomorrow to vote at the eighteenth election since Confederation. They will choose between the Macdonald Liberal Government, which has gone to the people on the record claimed of an audited surplus, paving of main highways, payment of old age pensions, and reduction of unemployment, and the Conservative platform of rural electrification, social security legislation, and improved secondary roads. Sixty-one candidates have been nominated for the thirty seats in the Legislature.

Sandbags Protect Madrid Buildings

Besieged Madrid, still suffering from periodic bombing raids by rebel aviators, has taken precautionary measures to protect some of the city's buildings, as shown above. The building with sandbags piled thirty feet high in front of it, is the Madrid Telephone Building, favorite target for rebel airmen and rebel artillerymen.

CONFERENCES TODAY MAY ALTER FOREIGN POLICIES OF BRITAIN

Delegates of Europe's Great Powers Gather to Discuss Spanish Situation

EXPECT GERMANY TO REFUSE COMPROMISE

LONDON, June 28 (P).—British statesmen tonight looked to a gathering tomorrow of spokesmen for Europe's great powers to disclose whether co-operation for keeping the Spanish war from spreading can be maintained. Official spokesmen said Great Britain's future foreign policy may hinge on its decisions.

The directing sub-committee of the twenty-seven-nation committee for isolating the Spanish conflict will convene at 11 a.m. The immediate question is whether Italy and Germany will return to the naval patrol around Spain they left last week.

Developments on the Continent indicated the answers would be negative, although British leaders hoped for a new compromise.

South Africa Says Future Of Gold Safe

JOHANNESBURG, South Africa, June 28 (P).—The future of gold is safe in the opinion of Defence Minister Oswald Pirow.

Speaking here, he declared: "Although no one can say what is going to happen to the shares of any particular mine, as far as the future of gold is concerned, especially after the discussions of the Imperial Conference, I am of opinion, and the Government is of opinion, that it is absolutely safe."

STRUGGLING AFTER PEACE

Appeal Made for Martial Law When Steel Plants Are Reopened

YOUNGSTOWN, O., June 28 (P).—The Governor of Indiana struggled today to avert new steel strike violence, even as the floor of the House of Representatives at Washington rang with denunciation of the Administration's strike policy. Governor Townsend of Indiana, confronted with an appeal from East Chicago for martial law when the steel plants there reopen—as they plan to do—this week pleaded for patience to allow him time to work out a plan of peace. He sent the Indiana Labor Commissioner, Thomas Hutton, to Washington by special messenger to meet with Secretary Perkins.

PLAN TO REOPEN

On the strike front, where back-to-work movements now are in full swing, steel executives mapped plans to reopen more picket-besieged mills, asserting the thirty-three-day-old strike by John L. Lewis' C.I.O. was "broken."

Strike leaders promptly retorted that the companies were staging "dummy" back-to-work parades. While quiet reigned along the Eastern front in the seven-state labor dispute, the showdown battle between the C.I.O. and four independent unions was expected to continue on Page 3, Column 2

KING AND QUEEN SEE MARCH PAST

British War Veterans Parade 80,000 Strong at London—King Gives Address

LONDON, June 28 (P).—Eighty thousand British veterans of the Great War, 600 of them women and most of them grey-haired, marched past the King and Queen yesterday in the largest parade ever held in Hyde Park.

King George, in a brief speech, reminded the veterans, Great Britain and Europe "war is a great calamity for victors and vanquished alike."

"If we can convince the world of this fact, then I feel we can render no greater service to the human race," the King declared. It required nearly two hours for the march past, although the veterans moved twenty abreast. Two hundred blind veterans, marching with linked arms, drew the biggest cheer of the day.

Mass Executions Rid Russia of Wreckers; Graft Charges Heard

Thirty-Seven More Die, Bringing Total to One Hundred and Thirty-One in Soviet Far East — Russian Red Cross Head Charged

MOSCOW, June 28 (P).—Execution of thirty-seven alleged "wreckers" at Khabarovsk was announced here today, raising to 131 the number killed for such subversive activities in the Soviet Far East.

The announcement was published in the Khabarovsk newspaper Pacific Star. The thirty-seven were described as alleged Trotskyists, Japanese spies and "diversionists," executed for "wrecking" activities on the Far Eastern Railway. Previously Pacific Star announced executions of ninety-four persons, condemned on similar charges in four trials before circuit sessions of the Military Collegium of the Supreme Court.

NEXT AVIATOR INVOLVED
Official quarters discounted reports Sigismund Levanevsky, famous Soviet aviator, was involved in the current wave of arrests. It was considered possible he might be preparing secretly for a second flight. Continued on Page 2, Column 1

Police Chief Charges Organizer of C.I.O. With Bombings

WARREN, O., June 28 (P).—Chief of Police Gillen announced tonight the "smashing of a dynamite ring" through the arrest and confession, he said, of three Committee for Industrial Organization strikers. The confession, he said, solved a series of dynamite bombings in the vicinity of the Republic Steel Company mill here.

The confessions named Gus Hall, the C.I.O. organizer for the Warren-Niles sector, as having plotted the bombings, the chief said.

Charges filed by Chief Gillen said the "ring" had a sub-machine-gun and other weapons, and that a confiscated milk can containing enough explosive "to wreck the entire block" was found on the second floor of C.I.O. headquarters.

Girl Fights Way Across Water to Save Her Friends

Supported Only by Lifebelt, Josephine Wolfe, Who Could Not Swim, Brings Aid to Party Marooned on Red River Sandbar—Gasoline Boat Runs Ashore, Out of Gas

WINNIPEG, June 28 (P).—Pretty twenty-six-year-old Josephine Wolfe, who couldn't swim, was acclaimed a heroine today for her successful five-mile crossing of deep and muddy Red River Channel Saturday to bring rescue for three companions stranded in a boat on a sand-bar for seventy-two hours.

SEAPLANE BASE IN CHARLOTTES

Provincial Government Sets Aside Foreshore at Alliford Bay for Crown

British Columbia co-operated yesterday in Federal plans to establish a seaplane base in the Queen Charlotte Islands, by donating fifty-five and a fraction acres of foreshore to the Department of National Defence.

The site selected for the base is at Alliford Bay in Skidegate Inlet, on the northeast coastline of Moresby Island, and lies immediately east of Maude Island and south of Kwana Point, where a large area of naturally sheltered water is available.

The Queen Charlotte Islands base is one of the new defence air bases to be established by Canada on the Pacific. In this instance, the Province is co-operating by donating the site.

BLAST KILLS THIRTEEN

RAWALPINDI, India, June 28 (P).—Thirteen workmen were killed and three others seriously injured today in an explosion of gunpowder at the Taxila railway station.

Ministry to Demand Extended Powers to Deal With Finances

More Than Hundred Protestant Clergy Jailed in Germany

BERLIN, June 28 (P).—Rev. Martin Niemöller, militant leader of the German Confessional Synod, declared tonight 102 Protestant pastors have been jailed in Germany in the past eight days. So many clergymen have been put behind bars the provincial church councils have been virtually crippled.

Police Kind To Animals On Sabbath

Sunday was observed as "Kindness to Animals Day" by the police. Constable Arthur Rudge, who many times has been followed around his beat by stray dogs, was trailed by a friendly white horse at 4:40 o'clock in the morning, on Douglas Street, near the intersection of Bay Street.

Constable Rudge telephoned the police station for instructions. Constable Louis Callan responded. Being a lover of horses, he tied the animal to a post, where there was plenty of fresh green grass. At 2:15 o'clock in the afternoon, a Johnson Drive operator frantically telephoned the station that a horse had been killed by a car on the bridge. Constable George Claydon drove the bleeding animal up back streets to the police station, loudly cheered by several spectators. Lal Singh soon arrived to collect the animal.

PREMIER KING TO SEE HITLER

Unless Plans Changed Prime Minister Will Meet Nazi Leader Today

BERLIN, June 28 (P).—An informal dinner tonight with members of the Anglo-German Association, closed for Prime Minister Mackenzie King a day active with investigation of German labor.

The Prime Minister of Canada, saw labor camps, interviewed labor headquarters officials, and returned to his hotel loaded with pamphlets and statistics. Afterward he visited the Berlin Zoological Gardens, and saw the exhibit of a Canadian beaver dam and buffalo from Alberta.

Tomorrow, unless arrangements are changed, he is to see Chancellor Hitler and other leading members of the German Government. It was agreed stressed these talks are personal and without political significance.

Mackenzie King is the bearer of no mission. The Prime Minister is merely seeking, through personal contact, to establish better understanding.

Today he was guest of General Konstantin Nierl, builder and leader of Germany's labor service, who outlined to him the aims and problems of the experiment of compulsory labor as a contribution by able-bodied youths to the rebuilding of the Reich.

MAN GIVES IT UP
Early Saturday morning, Miss Wolfe ignored pleas of "turn back" from Petroni, who left the boat with Miss Wolfe. But he couldn't swim either, and turned back when he found his cork lifebelt failed to keep him up.

"I was tired, terribly tired, but I knew I had to get help—our food was all gone," Miss Wolfe said.

The party left Winnipeg last Thursday, with Petroni at the controls of a borrowed boat. Late that night the boat ran into a sandbar about a mile from shore.

By the time they got the boat off the sandbar there was no gasoline left.

SEATTLE SLOOP WINS

PORT TOWNSEND, June 28 (P).—Charles Frieble's sloop Toia, of Seattle, took the forty-mile race for big stickers today on the Strait of Juan de Fuca against a fleet of Puget Sound and British Columbia sailing craft.

Decree Suspends All Operations on Financial and Securities Markets—Trade Draft Payments May Be Postponed at Request of Debtor And No Protest Is Allowed

Measure Taken to Protect Franc and Reduce Deficit

(Copyright, 1937, by the Havas News Agency)
PARIS, June 29 (Tuesday) (CP-Havas).—Premier Camille Chautemps' Government today closed the French Stock Exchange until further notice and declared a moratorium on commercial obligations, as the new cabinet prepared to go before Parliament for the first time with a demand for extended financial powers essentially identical with the project which brought collapse of Leon Blum's regime.

NAZIS WANT MORE TRADE

Hitler's Delegates Present Demands to International Chamber of Commerce

BERLIN, June 28 (P).—Nazi Germany laid her demands for colonies, raw materials and a share in world trade before the International Chamber of Commerce as its ninth annual session opened here today.

Reichsfuehrer Hitler heard his lieutenants state Germany's case at the first session, and applauded from his seat in the President's box.

The 1,500 delegates from thirty-nine countries heard two Nazi Government spokesmen, General Hermann Wilhelm Goerring, Hitler's chief aide, and Dr. Hjalmar Schacht, Economics Minister.

The German demands were backed up by a delegation comprising more than one-third of the total delegates.

Goerring said: "You may be sure Germany will continue to bring up the colonial problem until her urgent and legitimate desires regarding colonies are fulfilled."

He defended the Reich's rearmament, and added "as far as it depends on Germany there will not be another war."

Dr. Schacht emphasized need for raw materials and said the delegates would have to consider whether peace is served "if it is possible to open or close great sources of raw materials to any nation purely for political purposes."

Thomas J. Watson, of New York, was elected president of the International Chamber for the period 1937-1939. A Japanese invitation to hold the next congress in Tokyo in 1939 was accepted.

COBBLE HILL SCOUTS CALL ON ROOSEVELT

WASHINGTON, June 28 (P).—Greetings from T. D. Patullo, Prime Minister of British Columbia, were brought to President Roosevelt at the White House, today, by two youths who rode their bicycles from that province to attend the Boy Scout jamboree here. The boys, Arthur Freeman and Philip LaFortune, started from their home in Cobble Hill, B.C., April 28.

BODIES FOUND BY BOY SCOUTS

Three Little Girls of Inglewood, Calif., Kidnapped And Murdered

INGLEWOOD, Cal., June 28 (P).—Bodies of three little girls, kidnapped on Saturday from an Inglewood Park, were found today by Boy Scouts in a gully in Baldwin Hills, four miles north of here. Ropes were tied about the necks of two of the girls. They died of strangulation.

Meiba Everitt, aged nine, wearing a blue polka dot dress, was found about 300 yards from a narrow road paralleling La Brea Avenue, which runs from Inglewood to Hollywood. There was an eight-foot-long white rope about her neck. She was barefoot.

CHOKED TO DEATH
Her sister Madeline, seven, also was found with rope about her neck. Their playmate, Jeanette Stephens, eight, had been choked to death.

The bodies were discovered close to the site of the Olympic Village. There were numerous bruises on Jeanette's face and neck. Police said she had been beaten and choked to death by hand.

Simultaneously with the discovery, Captain William Penprase, of the Sheriff's Bureau of Investigation, sent a statewide teletype broadcast asking authorities to pick up Otis Leroy Strong, forty-two. The broadcast stated that Strong is wanted on suspicion of kidnapping the three Inglewood girls, June 26. The message said the man probably was driving a 1929 or 1930 Ford roadster, minus running boards, fenders and top.

DISCOVERY MAY SOLVE MYSTERY

LONDON, June 28 (CP-Havas).—Discovery at sea of the decomposed body of a woman, clad in flying top, apparently solved today the three-month mystery of the seventy-one-year-old Duchess of Bedford's disappearance while piloting her private plane in a survey flight over the River Ouse area.

Captain R. S. Riley, of the British steamship Haytor, found what was believed to be the body of the peeress, who learned to fly at the age of sixty-one and ascended the flying world three years later by setting an England-Cape town record.

The Duchess took off March 22 from Woburn Abbey, Bedfordshire, en route to Cambridge. When nothing was heard from her, a wide search began.

A few days later the wreckage of a plane, identified as hers, was washed up on the Norfolk beach, and it seemed certain she met disaster at sea.

Vancouver Padlock Order Causes Some New Complications

One "Shut-In" Declares He Intends to "Stay Put" With Rent Paid Up—Boy Goes to School, But Sleeps at Neighbor's

VANCOUVER, June 28 (P).—Unworried by a police order that padlocked his home, Dominic Caruso sent his eleven-year-old son, Ralph, to school and a movie today and made plans for the boy to sleep at a neighbor's house when police refused to admit him to his home.

The British Columbia Liquor Act, under which the Caruso house, was padlocked Friday, forbids entry to premises closed for alleged bootlegging activities. Police said persons locked in the house would be allowed to leave at will and food was permitted to be passed through a window.

"I not worry about the kid," said Caruso, who came to Canada in 1929. Continued on Page 2, Column 4

Hon. Dr. S.F. Tolmie Tells Directors of Session at Ottawa

Reviews Legislation Brought Forward in Interests Of Capital City and Thanks Chamber of Commerce for Its Co-operation and Work

In a clear and concise manner, characteristic of the speaker, Hon. Dr. S. F. Tolmie, Victoria member in the House of Commons, gave a review of legislation, passed and discarded, during the last session at Ottawa, to members of the Victoria Chamber of Commerce board of directors at their annual luncheon meeting in Spencer's dining-room yesterday.

Introduced by Harold Husband, chairman of the board and president of the Chamber, Dr. Tolmie said the session was the shortest in history and called for some legislation of an extraordinary character, mentioning in particular the Act of Abolition and the resolution pledging loyalty and support to the new King, and other matters concerning the Coronation.

Dr. Tolmie declared in his opinion the most important matter to come before the House was the defence of the coast of Canada. He said members of the Conservative party favor of the free port idea, although the bill from the Senate provided for only one free port in each province. He said it was doubtful if the bill would be again introduced during the life of the present Government, but he urged the Chamber of Commerce here to continue its work and to make, if possible, a complete survey of the whole situation, having in mind the geographical position of the capital city, which has no rail connections with the outside.

The member explained the situation concerning harbor dues increase, which called for general opposition from the ports of Vancouver and Victoria. Dr. Tolmie was able to take the matter, along with a score of telegrams from the Coast, to the Minister and secure an adjustment. There would be some amendments necessary to the general scheme to make it applicable to all parts of the Dominion. The Great Lakes, he pointed out, had a different set-up than either the Atlantic or Pacific coasts.

POSTAL DELIVERY
Dr. Tolmie said he brought to the attention of the postal authorities the necessity of early repairs to the postoffice here and was assured the work would be given consideration. Another matter Dr. Tolmie was able to get adjusted, he said, was the mail delivery to business sections of the city during the winter months. He stated he had been advised, as recently as Sunday, by the Postmaster-General that arrangements had been made with the Canadian Pacific Railway to bring their afternoon steamers into Victoria from the Mainland forty minutes earlier. This, Dr. Tolmie said, would enable the local postoffice to work the mails and give the business section a second afternoon delivery all the year-round instead of the summer months only.

In conclusion, the Doctor cordially thanked the members of the Chamber for their co-operation and support while he was at Ottawa. The vote of thanks to the member was moved by Duncan MacBride.

CONFERENCES MAY ALTER POLICIES

It was admitted the outlook was clouded by the declaration of Chancellor Hitler at Wurzberg that Germany renounced further efforts at international co-operation in the past.

In Rome, Virginia Gayda, often spokesman for the Fascist regime, declared Italy and Germany would not accept a "complete" patrol of Spanish coasts by Great Britain and France. That, he said, would favor the Spanish Government.

"Nothing can be done, especially in the Mediterranean," without Italy and Germany," he declared in Giornale d'Italia.

NO DEFINITE COURSE
But neither Hitler nor Gayda indicated a definite course for their Governments, and London officials waited for tomorrow's meeting to reveal whether the two Fascist powers will aid, obstruct, or merely remain aloof from the efforts of Great Britain and France to prevent the Spanish battle becoming a European conflagration.

The ambassadors of Germany and Italy were expected to submit to the sub-committee replies to the Anglo-French suggestions British and French warships fill the gap in the patrol around Spain left by the withdrawal last week.

That patrol, maintained by the four powers, was designed to keep foreign men and munitions from reaching Spain. The Germans and Italians withdrew as a sequel to the Leipzig incident—alleged Spanish Government submarine attacks on a German cruiser.

ITALY'S PROPAGANDA
LONDON, June 28 (G.)—Foreign Secretary Eden today told the House of Commons "His Majesty's Government takes the strongest objection" to anti-British propaganda broadcast by Italy in Palestine and Arabia.

The ambassador to Rome made representations on the subject recently to the Italian Government, Eden said, while he (Eden) spoke to the Italian ambassador a fortnight ago.

"I am glad to be able to inform the House," the Foreign Secretary said, "that the tone of broadcasts from Bari lately has shown improvement." Bari is an Italian port.

HIGHER MOTIVE OF LIFE URGED

Most Rev. John C. Cody Explains to Gryos the Purpose of Our Existence

—Photograph by Chayer.
BISHOP JOHN C. CODY, D.D.

"Although many things you do may be subject to criticism, if they are done for God with the supreme purpose of life, 'The service of Almighty God' as the motive, you will be carrying out His plan for you in this regard. Most Rev. John C. Cody, Bishop of Victoria, told members of the Gyro Club in his address at their luncheon meeting held in the Empress Hotel yesterday.

With "The Purpose of Life" as his subject, the speaker explained the Christian outlook governing the reason for our existence in this world. "Your purpose will be reflected in all your actions," he said.

"As members of a service club, you will be able to render a greater service to your fellow men by doing everything for the greater glory of God," Bishop Cody explained. "In the same way, every bit of work we do becomes a prayer."

Many laborious tasks are done by people, but they do not receive any particular benefit from them, the Bishop pointed out, because they did not have the right intention.

"Although we can make all our work a prayer, this does not do away with the necessity of going to church. We must do this once in a while from the supernatural viewpoint to keep more closely in touch with God," said Bishop Cody.

"If we do one instance of work for the glory of God, we will receive an eternity of happiness as a reward, and remember, no one is as generous as God Himself," Bishop Cody declared.

Introduced by P. W. Hawes, Bishop Cody was thanked on behalf of the members of the club by President Angus McIntyre.

BRITISH RESOURCES FAIRLY ABUNDANT

tion that the proposal was advanced as a result of pressure by the South African Government.

TO FULFILL AGREEMENT
Sir John, introducing the motion, said the Government proposed to increase the fund, to a total of $550,000,000 from the present $350,000,000, to help Great Britain fulfill its monetary agreement with the United States and France in the face of unsettled economic conditions.

During debate some members discussed dangers they said arose from huge gold accumulations of Great Britain and the United States. There was peril, they said, in a "break" in the "corner of gold" and of a possible loss to Britain from a reduction of the United States gold price.

THE TRUE POSITION
The Chancellor declared: "I think the true position is this: Our situation is very much better than it was. We have resources which, by comparison with earlier days, can be described as fairly abundant. I am not going to make a prophecy, but I am advised, and it appears to be true, that it is at any rate unlikely that any sudden and sustained loss of gold could now occur of a magnitude to embarrass us very seriously."

Sir John explained while the Government was able to deal with the situation at present, the additional $200,000,000 was necessary "for the purpose of maintaining our general financial policy in support of our undertakings and objectives under the tripartite monetary agreement to make this further provision as insurance against additional movements into sterling."

TO AID WORLD TRADE

The Chancellor said the Government's aim in seeking the increase was to aid general world trade.

Sir John said he had "good reason to think that the line I am taking is exactly in accordance with the policy of the United States. . . . There is no good ground for adopting the view that the accumulation of gold which presently is concentrating in London and New York will be a situation that will always continue."

Duncan Man Goes On Seed Council

SASKATOON, June 28 (G.)—F. L. Dickinson, Winnipeg, was re-elected vice-president of the Canadian Seed Growers' Association by the board of directors today. W. T. Gwener, Ottawa, was re-elected secretary-treasurer. Members elected to the executive council included F. W. Townley-Smith, of Lashburn, Sask., and F. James, Duncan, B.C.

TELLS CHAMBER OF ACTIVITIES

George I. Warren, Secretary-Manager, Presents Annual Report to Directors

A comprehensive review of the activities of the Chamber of Commerce, during the past year, was given the directors of the chamber at the annual luncheon meeting in Spencer's dining-room, yesterday, by George I. Warren, secretary-manager of the group.

In his usual thorough manner, Mr. Warren gave the directors and guests a resume of the important work done by the organization, of which Harold Husband is president. Of particular interest was the successful termination of negotiations with Ottawa in connection with the motion picture industry. Mr. Warren gave a good deal of the credit for the success to William T. Strath, member of the City Council and member-elect to the Provincial Legislature.

REPORT ADOPTED
The report in part, which was adopted by the directors, reads as follows:

"A special committee gave considerable attention to the question of the West Coast Highway, from Jordan River to Port Renfrew. Numerous discussions and conferences were held with Provincial and Dominion officials, which resulted in Hon. John Hart, Minister of Finance, on behalf of the Provincial Government, announcing that immediate work would be started on the construction of this much-needed road.

"The work has already started and the directors are pleased to advise that the industrial activity in the Port Renfrew district has already increased and that the construction of the West Coast Road will result in considerable business from that section being given to local merchants and firms.

"During the year the building industries trade group was formed within the chamber, and under the chairmanship of James Parfitt persistent efforts have been made to secure the erection of a new Federal building in Victoria. The group has also given much consideration to the Home Improvement Plan and the Dominion Housing Act.

"The recent proposal of the Dominion Government to enforce prohibitive fees and regulations on shipping at this port and at all ports in Canada other than those having harbor boards, would probably have resulted in the almost entire loss of Victoria's marine business. It would have spelled disaster to the local lumber industry; it would have adversely affected the operation of our shipbuilding and drydock establishments, as well as seriously affecting many other industries. The directors immediately appointed a committee to deal with the matter, and J. H. Hamilton, secretary of the Vancouver Chamber of Shipping, consented to represent Victoria at the hearing held in Ottawa.

REDUCTIONS MADE
"Mr. Hamilton secured the active co-operation of our Federal member, Hon. S. F. Tolmie, and as a result of their efforts the Dominion Government authorities made drastic reductions in and revision of the proposed act by eliminating the proposed charges on logs, the lay-up charges, the charges on vessels entering Victoria, drydock for repairs, and reducing charges on vessels entering the port, the result of which has removed the danger of the elimination of this city as a port of call by the many steamship lines whose vessels now touch here.

SEEKING AIRPORT
"The special aviation committee has affiliated with the civic airport committee and this new joint committee, working from the City Hall, is now striving for establishment of an airport in Victoria.

The only other general business to come before the directors was the request of George Beck, of the Junior Chamber, asking city merchants to support the city's anniversary committee and the Fish and Game Protective Association in plans for the flycasting competition to be held in Beacon Hill Park, July 10.

The Soviet Red Cross today became a target for denunciation in the nationwide hunt for oppositionists.

Pravda, organ of the Communist Party, shared the active head of the Red Cross, a woman named Molotova, "squandered" 15,643 rubles (about $3,128) on clothes, including a 3,000-ruble (about $600) silver fox fur, on a recent trip abroad.

Another charge was the Red Cross was concerned primarily with organizing barber shops and other commercial enterprises to make money.

HOTBED OF ENEMIES
Simultaneously the Moscow district party committee denounced the famous Plekhanoff Institute of National Economy as a hotbed of enemies of the people and for failure to perform its functions.

The Red Cross was said to have

Martin Ivanovitch Latsis, forty-nine, head of the Plekhanoff Institute, was denounced by the party committee as a "friend of the spy Eldeman"—referring to General Robert Eldeman, one of eight Red army leaders executed early this month for treason.

Latsis was one of the organizers of the old Cheka, powerful secret police who operated against counter-revolutionary elements.

FRENCH MINISTRY TO DEMAND POWER

In cases where the debtor has made proper application for postponement.

During the moratorium, interim trade drafts and other affected commercial obligations will bear interest calculated on the basis of the Bank of France discount rate.

RAPID DECISIONS
This sweeping move came as a sequel to last night's four-hour cabinet council. It bore testimony to the speed with which Finance Minister Georges Bonnet swung into his duties almost from the moment he arrived here from Washington shortly before noon yesterday.

The decree was interpreted as marking Bonnet's determination to guard the franc against speculation while Parliament is debating the "extended financial powers" bill the Government is expected to present today.

It was anticipated in financial circles that after the debate the franc will be able to adjust itself more freely with relation to foreign currencies than since the passage of the monetary law of last October 1, arising out of the tripartite monetary agreement with Great Britain and the United States.

Last night's cabinet council, which met amid growing threats from employers in several industries of widespread lockouts in protest against the forty-hour workweek, was devoted almost exclusively to discussion of the financial problem.

GIVES WIDE POWERS
After long discussion, agreement was reached on the "extended financial powers" project and on the terms of the ministerial declaration, Chautemps and vice-premier Blum propose to present, respectively, to the Chamber of Deputies and the Senate today.

The Premier will demand immediate discussion of the crucial financial measure, which would give his Government wide powers until August 31, to fight for recovery through the medium of decrees enacted by the ministers in council.

These powers would be applied chiefly for the following purposes:
1. To protect the franc.
2. To make arrangements with the Bank of France with a view to raising the amount of its advances to the state.
3. To enact financial measures permitting reduction of the budget deficit.

It was on the shoals of an almost identical project, aimed at raising 5,000,000,000 francs through additional taxes, that the Blum Government foundered and was succeeded by the present administration, which is almost a popular front coalition.

It was understood the most heated discussion at last night's cabinet session revolved around added sacrifices to be asked of taxpayers.

SOCIALISTS RESPOND
Blum and his Socialist adherents in the cabinet appeared finally to have rallied to Bonnet's project, although final decision will be up to

Seek Investigation Of Jurisdiction of Zoning Appeal Unit

City Council Debates Status of Group in Regard to Plans and Specifications Covering Conversion of Dwellings Into Apartments

JURISDICTION of the zoning board of appeal over plans and specifications covering conversion of residences into apartment houses was questioned by the City Council at a regular meeting last evening. Members of the zoning board are S. M. Armstrong, chairman; W. P. Marchant and E. E. Heath. W. Percy Wright is secretary.

A letter from Major M. Kirkpatrick Crockett, city lands commissioner, to Alderman R. A. C. Dewar, chairman of the lands committee, brought the matter to attention of the council. Major Crockett urged that powers of the zoning board in regard to conversions be immediately clarified. The council, after considerable debate, referred the matter to the lands committee and city solicitor for investigation and a full report.

REJECT RECOMMENDATION
A recommendation of Mayor Andrew McGavin that Aldermen Dr. J. D. Hunter and John A. Worthington, Judge H. H. Shandley, W. H. Johnson and A. M. Aitken represent the city on the Jubilee Hospital board of directors was voted down. An amendment calling for nominations and a ballot was also defeated. It was then decided to hold a special meeting at 3 o'clock Wednesday afternoon to appoint representatives.

Appointment of Miss M. Tubman to the legal department on three months' probation at a salary of $75 per month was made by ballot.

SALARY QUESTION
A letter from Civic Employees' Federation of Greater Victoria urging full restoration of past pay reductions was referred to the salary committee, headed by Alderman Worthington. The alderman stated his committee would report to the council on July 12.

A tender of $150 from John Oliver, Royal Oak, to purchase standing hay at Elk Lake was accepted. Tenders for a new automobile for the city engineer and a one-and-one-half-ton truck were referred to the public works executive with power to act. Another tender for a boiler for Beacon Hill Park nursery was referred to the parks committee and plumbing and building inspectors. A tender for printing and binding the 1937-1938 voters' list was referred to the city clerk and purchasing agent. A tender of W. C. Cronk to supply labor for the construction of a new greenhouse in Beacon Hill Park for $345 was accepted, subject to approval of the building inspector.

ANNOUNCE POSTPONEMENT
Later, Inland Steel announced it would postpone its plans for opening for twenty-four hours, and Youngstown Sheet & Tube said its opening was postponed indefinitely. The Steel Workers' union committee immediately mobilized the greatest force of pickets since the bloody Memorial Day riot, in which ten men were killed and scores wounded.

Officers tonight estimated there were 2,500 pickets, besieging the plants in East Chicago.

WILD ANIMAL LIFE PICTURED

"Tundra," Showing at Oak Bay Theatre, Is Splendid Northland Film

An exceptionally fine film picturing the wild animal life of the Arctic and sub-Arctic regions opened at the Oak Bay Theatre yesterday.

Billed to run all week, this film, "Tundra," offers the public a really rare opportunity to see not only something of the stupendous and crushing solitude of the great northlands, but also, in their native habitat, something of the life of the polar and grizzly bear, the seal, reindeer, mountain goat, white fox, Alaska squirrel, otter, musk ox, beaver, snowshoe rabbit, cougar, porcupine, wolf, deer and many other civilization-shy animals that can be studied by the average person only under such exceptional long-distance conditions. Members of the Victoria press who were privileged to be present at the preview of the picture were most enthusiastic in their appreciation not only of the life pictured, but of the superb photography.

"THE FLYING DOCTOR"
A thread of continuity is given the pictures in the story of Dr. Jason Barlow, the young medical man who is known to the scattered inhabitants of the northern wilderness as "The Flying Doctor," because he goes by airplane on his healing missions to the pestilence-stricken Eskimo and Indian villages. While speeding to one of these villages, his plane crashes on an iceberg in frozen Arctic seas. While the narrative, from the human standpoint, is harrowing from this point onward, it is relieved by the splendid interest of the animal life which young Dr. Barlow encounters in the lonely tundra lands over which he struggles in his attempt to reach some habitation.

Comic relief of most entertaining kind is supplied by two bear cubs who attach themselves to the doctor after the mother bear has lost her life in one of the stark tragedies which seem to be incidental to existence in the wild. The doctor, in turn, becomes greatly attached to his comic and quarrelsome little friends, as is proved when he decides to starve rather than kill one of the cubs when his food supply is exhausted.

SEATTLE MAYOR ILL
SEATTLE, Wash., June 28 (AP)—Mayor John F. Dore was in a hospital here today awaiting complete diagnosis of an ailment which Dr. John S. Thomas said "had all the symptoms of ptomaine; it is a simple case of auto-intoxication." He said the mayor is subject to such attacks and is not seriously ill.

1909, "if he is not to come home he can sleep next door. They look after him."

Dominic, locked in with his wife, said he knew Tony Borsato, whose Hornby Street home was padlocked under the same order Friday, and who is also staging a "stay-in" strike. Borsato is locked in with his wife and their three-year-old girl.

OTHER LEGAL MATTERS
"I think I phone him up," Dominic said, smiling.

Of a notice tacked to his door, June 26, by the landlord of the house, stating his tenancy had ceased, Caruso said his rent was paid to July, and he intended to "stay put."

Police on duty outside the Caruso house said landlords, in British Columbia, are required to give tenants thirty days' notice before starting eviction proceedings. Earliest such court action could be taken, therefore, was July 25.

On Friday, Louise Mattio, tenant of another house nearby, will appear in police court to answer charges of entering a house padlocked under provisions of the Liquor Act. Mattio is free on $100 bail pending hearing of the case, which arose when he broke a padlock that had been placed on his door by dry squad operatives.

CASH STOLEN IN POLICE STATION

Vancouver Officers Report $500 Bail Money Missing From Safe in General Office

VANCOUVER, June 28 (AP)—There were red faces in Vancouver's city police station today as officers told newsmen $500 had been stolen from the safe in the station's general office.

The theft was discovered Friday. The money was deposited as bail for an unnamed Chinese charged with keeping a gaming house. It was placed in the general office safe because the police court clerk's office was closed at the time.

Then the Oriental's case was dismissed, and he asked the return of his bail. Officers went to the safe, but the money and its containing envelope had disappeared.

Police said they had seen the envelope earlier in the week. The Chinaman's bail was repaid from general police funds.

FRENCH BOURSE CLOSED

The tension in France created by an acute financial situation apparently was not lessened by the change of Government last week. Early today the Popular Front Coalition Cabinet decided upon its course of action. As a precaution against serious disturbances in the financial markets the drastic action of closing the Bourse was ordered. At the same time a moratorium was declared on commercial obligations. No dates were set for the lifting of these orders, and it is presumed they will be enforced until Parliament has heard and passed judgment on the proposals of Premier Camille Chautemps.

Possibly the closing of the French Stock Exchange will have a more pronounced effect upon the Members of the Senate in bringing realization of the gravity of the situation than would the speeches of Government leaders. M. Leon Blum, now Vice-Premier, demanded for his Cabinet decree powers for six weeks, saying such authority was essential if his Ministry was to hope for success in unravelling the tangled situation. The Chamber of Deputies twice supported his demands, but the Senate refused, regarding the proposals as a temporary dictatorship, and the Blum Government fell. Now the Chautemps Government is going before Parliament to ask for wide powers until August 31, to fight for financial recovery through the medium of decrees. The proposals are almost identical with those that brought the downfall of the Blum Government. They would be applied chiefly to protect the franc, to make arrangements with the Bank of France with a view to raising the amount of its advances to the State, and to enact financial measures permitting reduction of the budget deficit. France is watching now to see whether Parliament will give M. Chautemps and the re-arranged Ministry the necessary vote of confidence for continuation in power.

INEFFICIENT METHOD

There is a growing belief in British Columbia that a good deal of the present cost of provincial general elections could be eliminated if the absentee ballot system were abandoned. The whole process of government is costly enough, with sessions at $125,000 each and general elections at approximately $150,000, without superfluous expenses.

The absentee ballot system was designed to give a vote to those electors who were away from their home ridings on polling day, a principle that is fair enough. On the other hand, the working out of the absentee plan has not brought the benefits that were confidently expected. In Victoria riding, for instance, close upon 20,000 electors balloted in five city wards, and some 300 others voted by the absentee method. It is literally true that the absentee vote in most cases makes not the slightest difference whatever in the general course of the election, or to the standing of respective candidates. It does, however, bring on a delay of twenty-one days in the return of final count figures to electoral officers. That means that for three weeks after an election, and then for as long as three weeks more if an official count is requested, the electorate cannot know whom they have chosen to sit in the Legislature. There are many and complicated objections to the absentee ballot system from the standpoint of the electoral officers themselves. Nearly half of all such ballots cast are thrown out, when it is discovered that voters believed their names were registered on the voters' list, whereas in fact they were not. It will be objected that ship's companies and others with a legitimate reason to be away from their riding during an election might be deprived of their vote, but other means can be taken to cure that, perhaps by an advance poll as in Federal elections. The present practice of voting an entire ship's company at a single polling division by the absentee route, where their ballots are not mixed with any others, has already destroyed the secrecy of the ballot, and must be revised in any event. Regarding all of the circumstances, in the opinion of many the absentee ballot system could be eliminated with material saving in costs to the public, with an automatic cure for dangerous precedents of today, and without substantial damage to any person or any interest.

SUN TAN MODERATION

The value of sunshine, from the health standpoint, is beyond question: it is essential to good health. But as in most things, it is possible to take an overdose, in which case there can be a variety of ill effects, some extremely painful and others damaging without noticeable physiological reaction. Normal and apparently healthy persons may be made seriously ill by inordinate exposure to sunlight. A sunburn of considerable extent is simply like any burn caused by exposure to fire. In addition there may be prostration, high fever and evidence of internal derangement.

At this time of year, especially this year which has been more cloudy and colder than usual, there is a general urge to get out in the sunshine. With school and other vacations close at hand, the desire to enjoy more sunshine is all the greater. Nearly everyone will be seeking a coat of sun tan, and this summer, as in years gone by, there will be the usual host of self-elected martyrs to the sun's rays. Blond and red-headed persons will be among the chief sufferers, for fair-skinned persons have little pigment in their skins, and natural protection against the sun's rays. Those of rasher natures will attempt to get their sun tan as quickly as possible, but those who are wiser will take steps to protect themselves, avoiding an overdose of sunshine. They may not be able to display their tans with questionable pride, but they will be treading on safer ground and probably will enjoy themselves the more. For those who have the misfortune to suffer sunburn, the Health League of Canada recommends the application of a towel soaked in a saturated solution of Epsom salts.

MODERN DRAMATIC 'LITERATURE'

In its generally-accepted sense, the term "literature" suggests certain qualities to be found in writings which are valued as records of historical interest, or for the depth of their philosophical insight, or for their beauty of form or emotional effect. In another sense of the word, "literature" simply means printed matter in general. There was offered to the public not long ago a certain unpleasant collection of "dramatic" productions, dedicated to "the reading public" and introduced to the English-speaking world with a loud flourish of trumpets.

The publishers assure us that the author "stands pre-eminent among the dramatists of the world." Apart from this warrant or guarantee, however, very few would have suspected it. A perusal of a few of the plays should convince anyone that the modern drama is in a bad way, indeed, if the author has achieved a pre-eminence by means of these productions. The book has an introduction which tells us that the greatness of the plays lies in the fact that they "achieve a grandeur which their rational framework is impotent even to suggest." Religion, we are further informed, has decayed, the belief in a supernatural power no longer invests our lives with meaning, and only the "self-justifying grandeur of tragedy" can compensate man for what he has lost. There is much more of the same sort, written in a style which, though evidently intended to be impressive, remains unconvincing. The plays are spread over nearly nine hundred pages of type and run to more than four hundred thousand words. Their quality and character can be guessed at with the help of the sketch given of the author's life, and the psychological theory that determines the author's attitude to life. We are favored with suggestions as to the "sleeping volcano of his temperament," his "tempestuous youth," his "periods of intoxication," his "extravagant adventures in highly-disreputable company." His psychology, naturally enough, has been derived from the Freudian school.

The introduction points out—quite unnecessarily—that the dramatist's language falls hopelessly short of the situations that he contrives for his characters. The introduction also offers the very profound reflection that if the dramatist's capacity for language had only been equal to the subject, we should be affected as no Anglo-Saxon audience since Shakespeare's time has been affected! In other words, if the dramatist had been equal to Shakespeare—we should have had a great thrill. Unfortunately, we are offered merely a coarse imitation of certain features of Macbeth and the Electra, and there is not a memorable line either in these imitations or, indeed, in any of the plays.

Tragedy, it was said long ago, purges the soul by pity and terror. Plays of the type of these selections fail to do more than fill thoughtful minds with foreboding. Our systems of public instruction have taught people of all classes to decipher print, thus creating a vast "reading" public. The author of these plays, aided and abetted by his publisher and other sponsors, has applied this underestimating public with a set of characters and incidents and situations and sentiments and principles of conduct which have no relation to literature, save in the sense that everything printed is literature.

The writer of this series of plays invites you to join a personally-conducted tour through a region picturesquely ornamented with garbage of a peculiarly obnoxious quality and inhabited by people whose habitual conversation is far below the capacity of an intelligent navy—with apologies to the navy for the comparison.

The only fountain in the wilderness of life, where man drinks of water totally unmixed with bitterness, is that which gushes for him in the calm and shady recess of domestic life.—William Penn.

Man, in society, is like a flower blown in its native bud. It is there only that his faculties, expanded in full bloom, shine out; there only reach their proper use.—William Cowper.

The beauty that addresses itself to the eyes is only the spell of the moment; the eye of the body is not always that of the soul.—George Sand.

Note and Comment

By Sandham Graves

What would you think if you suddenly saw the funnel of a cargo boat grow like the beanstalk of fabled fame; or a ferry steamer hull down on the horizon stand up suddenly, with her masts in the water and her broad beam in the sky? Yet that was the sight which greeted watchers from Dallas Road on Sunday, when the Straits of Juan de Fuca contributed one of the finest examples of mirages of the present Summer seas. Without being too technical about it, mirages occur when two layers of air of different temperature are acted on by the sun to produce an optical illusion; the uppermost layer in this instance reflecting upside-down what is taking place at the surface level of the sea. One can get something of the same effect by looking through an ordinary camera, with the lens open in front. The effect in real life, however, is startling. From the marina driveway on Sunday, strollers saw a black-hulled cargo boat making out for sea towards Race Rocks. Low down in the water and heavily laden, the vessel was distinguished by a black funnel with a white ring near its top. Without warning, the boat began to grow. It spread up beyond the masts, up beyond the equivalent length of the ship, and still up into the air. The single white ring became a number of white rings, repeated at intervals up the overgrown funnel. Finally the entire vessel appeared to duplicate herself upside-down in the sky, her inverted image standing funnel to funnel on top of the real one. No less peculiar appeared the C.P.R. ferry to Seattle, alighted upside-down against a light grey mist, with the grand old Olympics for a background. Mirages should go down at once in our tourist folders as Summer magic.

The radio has developed an old, and polite, form of torture: intellectual teasers for those who do not get enough of problems in their daily round. You will remember, no doubt, the efforts made by generations of physics teachers to explain how there can be no sound in a desert, unless there are human or other ears there to hear it. It always seemed a silly argument to me, a mere quibble on the definition of the word sound. Well, now we have radio programmes with a long string of such questions, based on the interpretation of words, on the pretended delights of mental arithmetic, and upon the will and caprice of the examiner-in-chief. There is more, or denying that such a collection of questions does evoke the response of curiosity, a very human failing. The radio quiz is the successor of the radio spelling bee, and I still think someone is trying very hard to sell dictionaries. The questions asked call for a good deal of mental alertness, and no mean degree of general knowledge; so much so of the latter, in fact that perhaps it is not dictionaries, but encyclopedias that should be given away as prizes to the successful contestants. There is, however, one grave danger to all this excess of thought at week-ends, and the programmes occur at week-ends. That is that genuine devotees of the radio quiz will probably require two or three days off in the new week to rest up from the mental effort of the week-end vacation. Furthermore, what is to happen when hostesses bring this studio sport back into the home, from whence it was only lately ejected in the form of quiz games? Or is this all part of what is meant by "adult education"? This column is so fatigued by the mental effort required to be entertained by a professor of quizzing last week-end that it can supply none of the right answers. Aviation had better hurry up with the skyways—the earth is growing intolerable!

Dogs have minds of their own. On Sunday, a wire-haired terrier spent some time in an ingenious effort at adult education. He was insisting that he wanted a swim, collar and all; and his master was insisting that the collar should come off first, so that it would not choke the pup when the leather was wet. His master threw a stick along the beach, carefully avoiding the water. The pup retrieved the stick and carried it into the water. Another stick was thrown on dry land, with precisely the same result. The master sat down on a log, and pretended throwing sticks was too hot a game anyway. The dog waded further out into the water, and brought back a large streamer of kelp. It required arbitration to settle the dispute. Over sand-ditches, the dog extolled the virtue of a swim on a warm day, and his master pointed to the necessity for dry collars. Then, with the greatest respect and goodwill on both sides, the pup had his swim, and consented to put on a dry collar. Dogs have minds of their own, only their reasoning is tinged with few inhibitions. They cannot, one is convinced, see the necessity for any kind of a collar.

Softball Gossip

"Shorty" White, hurler for the Ski and Sport Shop, Vancouver's softball nine, did double duty on the mound Saturday during Victoria's first international softball tournament at the Royal Athletic Park. Just a little fellow trying to get along, "Shorty" certainly tossed the "apple" down the alley with plenty of speed. His rapid-fire delivery annoyed some of the boys, and in their eagerness to crash out a bingle they swung their bats through the atmosphere.

Mel Daggett, who did the hurling for the Seattle Dog House in the night-cap, carried a rosin bag in his right pants pocket and used it until Umpire-in-Chief Ernie Stock finally got his eyes on it, and that was the end of the rosin bag. Stock ordered its removal in quick time, and of course Mr. Daggett, much against his wishes, had to get rid of it. We are given to understand that pitchers use the rosin bag regularly at Seattle. Saturday's tournament was the first ever staged in the city and we think that the city's anniversary committee and Lower Island Softball Association officials are to be complimented on their fine efforts. The fans saw some good ball, the players enjoyed the meet, and "Chuck" Durpan's boys walked off with the special prizes donated by the committee.—B.T.

Star of Stars

For the third successive year Jack Benny was placed first in Radio Guide's "Star of Stars Election." It was announced recently. Fred Allen, recent feudist with Jack, was only able to make eleventh place. Hard on Benny's heels came Nelson Eddy, and after Eddy, Lanny Ross, whose rise from fourth to third ranking during the year seems to give the lie to rumors that he's slipping. Frances Langford proved the most popular among the feminine performers. Mary Livingstone received fourth place listing. Eddie Cantor dropped from second last year to eighth this season, while Don Ameche managed to squeeze into twelfth and last place.—W.F.F.

Chinese Not Guilty

Late one night a voice boomed over the office telephone from the Yacht Club: "say, several of us have a bet on that Captain Cook got Chinese to build him ships at Nootka Island when he visited these parts. I read about it in your paper some time ago, and I want confirmation." Records show that Captain Cook encountered only Indians when he journeyed to these shores. We wonder who originated the Chinese legend. Basil, who should know, told us fat persons do not make good mountain climbers. Seems that a person who tips the scales cannot scale the tips. A Toronto columnist remarked that in their eagerness to make children perfect, loving parents give them almost everything except example. Rhyme from The Dinkalk Herald: "Ugly old scrag heap, don't you cry, you'll be a battiship by and by." Wonder how bill collectors will be effected by trailers? Bill, the Broad Street barber, is a strong believer that married men should not drink to any extent. He claims too much "elbow bending" makes a married man see double and feel single.—G.B.

PLEADS FOR ORIENTALS

Sir,—Talking with a friend of European extraction, but a Native Son of British Columbia, and highly placed in a position of honor and trust towards the public, I said: "Now, will you mentally transpose yourself into the shoes of one of my young friends of Oriental ancestry, but Canadian-born and educated, who are doing such scholarly work at Victoria College. Well, think of your rights as a native-born Canadian citizen—have you the voter's franchise as such? I'm afraid not. Think then of your family, and a thousand others, fellow-countrymen educated at our public schools, on equal footing with white children, and doing very well a large share of the real work in the major industries of this province do they get proper recognition—other than nominally by the churches for such as profess Christianity—as citizens, or even as fellow-men? Or are they just tolerated as a necessary nuisance—like our lawyers! Now, my fellow-native-son, give me your reason for refusing the electoral franchise to our yellow friends: "Is it not simply because they are not blessed with quite so pale a skin as ours?"

"Yes," said he, "I don't think any white people should have a vote in a white country." "Why so?" said I. "Well," he answered, "your 'overs' may sound plausible, even logical, but hasn't Japan got spies all over Canada?" "Good God," said I, your talking to an old soldier who has been—and has seen' what happens in Oriental countries, and round the world, you want to put it over on me that while throughout Europe, Asia and Africa our highly-paid British spies are only to be praised for their daring, whatever Japanese spies may be in Canada are just rascals for whom shooting is too good. That won't go down: for 'I Spy' is an all-nation game."

But why not tell the true reason, viz., that the Oriental works efficiently and cheaply—keeps prices moderate—and wins out over all incompetent or lazy competitors; and that therefore young Lee Sing must go back to his grandfather's homeland. Following that exodus, as night follows day, up go all food prices in all British Columbia homes. Be sure you get that, you Victoria housekeepers.

Finally, and of utmost importance, do you want China and Japan, the two great Asiatic-Pacific powers, for friends or for enemies?—G.

Distribution Of Prizes to Pupils Made

Some of the pupils met Saturday afternoon at the studio of Mrs. MacGovern, Quadra Street, for the final recital of the season and also for the distribution of prizes to those who had taken the highest marks during the year.

Miss Jessie Goode very graciously made the presentations. Doris Bleathman won first prize for girls, Gladys Baxter second; Herbert Copp first for boys, and Harold Temple second. There was a good variety on the programme of piano solos, duets, songs and sight-reading.

Satisfactory progress in general musicianship was noticeable in every young student who played.

Condensed Dispatches.—A religious conflict is imminent at Vienna. Another rate war is imminent on American railways. Serious railroad troubles are reported from the Cherokee nation. Wine shippers in San Francisco are on Monday evening. The Queen gave a state banquet at Windsor on Monday. British ships in San Francisco find great difficulty in securing coal. The decree of A.B. has been conferred on five feminine graduates of Harvard College. The formal ratification of the Egyptian convention has been postponed to July 4. Large quantities of arms and ammunition are being shipped from San Francisco to Honolulu.

Presbyterian Social.—A strawberry festival and social entertainment was given last evening in the Pandora Street Presbyterian Church, which was highly enjoyed by all present. Revs. Burns and Pollock, of Hellgate, addressed the guests. Several vocal selections and recitations were given by members of the Sunday school, and after enjoying refreshments, Rev. Donald Fraser called upon those present to join in singing "God Save the Queen."

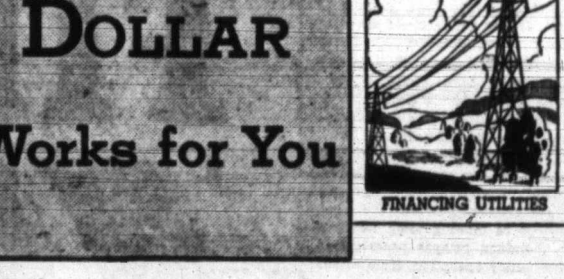

Pumper Pass For Bell.—The Government has decided to establish a toll bell worked by machinery at Pumper Pass light station. This is part of the system for improving the service on the Pacific Coast.

DIRECTOR ASKS FOR REDUCTION

Advance in Ferry Fares
Protested by Puget
Sound Patrons

SEATTLE, June 28 (AP).—Prediction of an early agreement over protested ferry rates on Puget Sound came tonight from Ferd J. Schaeff, state director of public service, at Olympia. Schaeff said he would ask operators to reduce fares immediately, if a preliminary survey satisfied him increases were excessive.

Protests from ferry patrons on the Fauntleroy-Mashon-Harper run prompted King County commissioners to ask the County Prosecutor for an opinion on whether the County might take over operation. The County owns the franchise and leased it to the operators. The prosecutor was asked to say whether he believed the company had violated its lease by raising rates.

Ralph E. Purves, Kitsap County prosecutor, who had threatened an injunction suit against the operators, said he had abandoned this plan, but would ask Governor Martin to call a special session of the Legislature to enable the state to operate the ferries.

REPRESENTATIVE OF CANADIAN RAILROAD DIES IN CALIFORNIA

VANCOUVER, June 28. — News was received here today of the death at Alameda, California, Sunday, of Fred L. Nason, general agent of the Canadian Pacific Railway's passenger department in San Francisco for the past twenty years. Seriously ill with lobar pneumonia and complications since April, he seemed to be making some recovery until a sudden relapse necessitated an emergency operation, from which he failed to recover.

A frequent visitor to Canada, he was well known in Montreal, Winnipeg and Vancouver. Mr. Nason was a thirty-second degree Mason and member of the Mystic Shrine.

George: "Now that you're married, I suppose you'll take out a life insurance policy."

Edward: "Oh, no, I don't think she's dangerous."

CRAWLED UPSTAIRS ON ALL FOURS

Owing to Rheumatism in Her Knees

It was not a very dignified way of going upstairs, but she had rheumatism in her knees, and it was the best she could do at the time. Since then she has been taking Kruschen Salts, and now feels much better. Read her letter: "I had very painful gout in my big toe, and could only get upstairs on all fours, owing to rheumatism in my knees. It is over three years ago since I commenced taking Kruschen Salts. I must say on damp days I still have a little gout, but my knees are quite better. I am over sixty years of age, have a complexion like a girl's and feel very fit. I am fully repaid for taking a half teaspoonful of Salts each morning in a cup of hot water."—(Mrs. A. W.)

The pains and stiffness of rheumatism are frequently caused by deposits of uric acid in the muscles and joints. The numerous salts in Kruschen assist in stimulating your liver and kidneys to healthy, regular action, and help them to get rid of the excess uric acid which is the cause of so much suffering.

TO MAKE START ON NEW SCHOOL

Teachers Named for Junior High Institution at Boys' And Girls' Central

—Photograph by Cherr, A. T. HUNKIN

Immediate arrangements will be made to establish a junior high school at Boys' and Girls' Central Schools under the name of Central Junior High School, according to George H. Deane, municipal inspector.

Boys' Central School is the oldest public school in Greater Victoria, having been built in 1875. Girls' Central School was built in 1902 as the first Victoria High School. Both were built on property donated to the city by the Hudson's Bay Company.

Kingston Street School, built in 1883, will be closed. Pupils now in attendance there, together with those who would attend next September, will be distributed to South Park and Beacon Hill Schools.

TO CHANGE SCHOOLS
Elementary pupils from Grades I to VI at Central Schools will be assigned to surrounding elementary schools as proposed by Mr. Deane, who will also recommend adjustment of school boundaries.

It is anticipated that the school board will consider the question of closing Spring Ridge School next September if there is sufficient accommodation for pupils at George Jay School.

STAFF OF NEW SCHOOL
Mr. Deane announced that A. T. Hunkin, B. Sc., had been selected principal, and Miss Olive W. Hartigan, B. Sc., vice-president and grade councillor of the new Central Junior High School.

Other members of the staff named were: W. McMichael, B.A., boys' counsellor and instructor in social studies; W. E. Cook, B. Sc., science and mathematics; Miss A. V. Turner, B.A., mathematics and English; Miss S. Beay, B.A., French; Miss F. T. Brown, B.A., art and library; G. M. Paterson, B.A., science and health; Miss B. T. Ramsay, B. Sc., home economics; Miss M. Cameron, social studies and mathematics; Miss W. Elliott, music; Mrs. M. O. B. Tod, library and English; J. S. White, industrial arts; Miss N. Ferguson, B.A., health; Major A. C. Hinton, health, and V. G. Pritchard, commercial subjects.

Alternative teachers selected were Miss R. Fields, B.A., Miss E. McKee, B.A., and C. Chatfield.

Notification will be given members of the new staff in order that they may arrange for summer courses and take every opportunity to improve their qualifications for junior high school work. Salary increases will be deferred until September, and will be conditional upon the school board's financial position at that time, Mr. Deane declared.

Rest Haven Graduation Draws Many

The graduation exercises for the senior class of the Rest Haven School of Nursing took place at the institution, with many relatives and friends of the graduates attending.

The exercises were held in the lounge room, decorated for the occasion with masses of flowers, in which the class colors, coral and sea green predominated.

The class watchword, "Love," was outlined in coral roses. The class motto, "In the Path of Need," and the class aim, "Unselfish Ministry," were outlined in the class colors.

The professional march was played by Miss Worman, junior and graduate nurses and members of the faculty leading, followed by the graduating class.

The address was given by W. E. Perrin, who has served for five years as a member of the Rest Haven Hospital board of directors and is now business manager of the institution. He spoke to the graduates on their high calling and encouraged them to live up to their ideals.

Diplomas were presented by Dr. H. G. Burden, and pins by Mrs. C. F. Courser, R.N., to the following: Misses H. Grace Walker, Margaret Smith, Emma Rath and Ethel Mc-

Following the ceremony, a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents. The honeymoon will be spent on the Mainland. Mr. and Mrs. Malpass will reside in Nanaimo.

McKillop-Higgins

Rev. F. L. Stephenson officiated at a pretty wedding yesterday afternoon at 2 o'clock, held at the home of the bride's parents, when Carmen, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Higgins, 1895 Foul Bay Road, became the bride of Mr. A. A. McKillop, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. A. McKillop, Vancouver, in the presence of relatives and a few close friends.

Malpass-Robson

NANAIMO, June 28.—The Manse of St. Andrew's United Church was the scene of a quiet wedding on Saturday, the principals of which were Iris, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Robson, South Wellington, and Mr. Stanley Vernon Malpass, son of Mrs. J. Patterson. Miss Winifred Robson was bridesmaid and Mr. F. Malpass supported the groom.

Refreshments were served after the service from a table centred with the bride's cake, which was surrounded with vases of sweet peas and ferns. Mrs. Higgins was dressed in black and white for the occasion, and wore a corsage bouquet of white carnations.

Mr. and Mrs. McKillop left during the afternoon for Seattle, from where they will travel South, and on their return will make their home in Seattle. Mrs. J. Smith, Duncan, and the bridegroom's sister, Miss L. McKillop, Vancouver, were guests at the wedding.

Superintendent of Brokers

VANCOUVER, June 28.—Two announcements affecting the Attorney-General's Department, were made here today by Premier T. D. Pattullo, when it was learned Gordon Wismer, K.C., Attorney-General-Designate, will assume that position July 5, and E. K. De Beck will relieve H. G. Garrett as superintendent of brokers on July 1. Mr. Garrett will continue as registrar of companies and superintendent of insurance, the Premier said. He has occupied the former position for twenty-five years. Appointment of E. K. Mr. De Beck, a McGill graduate who has practised law in this province since 1906, was born in Vancouver, the son of an old British Columbia family which settled in New Westminster during the Cariboo gold rush.

PLANT SEEDLING IN CHURCHYARD

METCHOSIN, June 28.—On Friday, under the direction of the Metchosin Farmers' Institute, an oak seedling from the Royal Forest of Windsor, England, was planted in St. Mary's Churchyard, Metchosin. The president, O. H. Helgesen, turned over the conducting of the ceremony to Rev. W. C. Gemmell, who opened the proceedings with prayer. This was followed by "O Canada." Mr. Gemmell spoke fittingly of the significance of the occasion, commemorating the crowning of the King and Queen. He then called upon William Witly, the oldest resident of Metchosin (and son of John Witly, who gave the land on which the church is built), to plant the oak tree. The Metchosin Glee Club, under the direction of Mrs. W. L. Whitney-Griffiths, sang "Jerusalem" and "Fight the Good Fight." The pupils of Metchosin school were then presented by the school board with Coronation mugs, and ice cream was served. Following this, an illustrated seed lecture was held in Metchosin Hall. The speaker, P. J. James, showed several reels on the growing of seeds on the James Seed Farm. Refreshments were served by the Farmers' Institute.

Mrs. Brown (to new cook who has burned the bacon): "Fortunately my husband has not to be at the office till ten. It's a good job, isn't it?"

Cook: "Not 'alf, ma'am! 'Ow did 'e get it?"

All Services of Black Ball Line
Operating

ALL the regular services of the Black Ball Ferry Line to and from Vancouver Island were in operation yesterday. Business was as good as could be expected under the circumstances, a number of motor cars and passengers arriving in from Seattle, Port Angeles and Anacortes via Sidney during the day.

No big rush is expected by Black Ball company officials until it becomes generally known among Northwest motorists that the Inland Boatmen's Union strike has been settled, when it is thought all ferry runs will have all the business that can be handled. Heavy demand for car space on incoming boats should commence within a few days.

Says Japanese Fishermen
Will "Cork" Bristol Bay
In Few Years

LIBBYVILLE, Alaska, June 28 (P).—A United States Territorial Bureau of Fisheries official, declaring Japanese off-shore plants could destroy Alaska's valuable Bristol Bay red salmon run in five to ten years, advocated today a "strong stand" by the United States Government against foreign fishermen. Fred R. Lucas, Assistant Agent of the Fisheries Bureau, returning from an inspection patrol, added to complaints which have increased with the start of the season's salmon fishing last Friday.

"The Japanese floating fish plants in Alaska territorial waters are a menace, theoretically at least," Lucas said. "It is plainly seen that with what experimental work they have done in Bristol Bay and Bering Sea and the type of gear tried, they could easily cork this region. "With the same gear Japanese off-shore plants used in Siberia it is entirely possible for them to destroy our run in from five to ten years. "While they are not actually fishing now, there is one big ship of over 8,000 tons accompanied by fourteen steel trawlers, some of them over 150 feet long. With their ocean bottom vacuum-cleaning methods they are taking tons and tons of fish from our waters, des-ucceeding John Callaghan, retired. An aero-pack traveling case, a brief case and matched set of shirt studs and cuff links were presented on behalf of the division by G. B. Bentz, dispatcher of North Bend G. L. McCrea, assistant superintendent, Vancouver, was chairman.

Lucas said that in addition to these boats, he saw a 4,000-ton steamer with two 100-foot boats laying gear and nine or ten small boats picking it up, catching and packing crabs.

"It is undoubtedly necessary," he added, "that our Government take a strong stand in this matter."

Meanwhile American fishermen reported the start of this season's run was normal or better, with prospects for good profits. They are receiving 141-4 cents per fish, highest rate ever paid in this area.

What Today Means

"CANCER"

If June 29 is your birthday, the best hours for you on this date are from 9:30 to 11:30 a.m., from 1:30 to 3:30 p.m., and from 5:30 to 7:30 p.m. The danger periods are from 7:30 to 9:30 a.m. from 3:30 to 5:30 p.m., and from 7:30 to 9:30 p.m.

Lack of consideration of the likes and dislikes of the average individual will be the jarring note in both home and business circles this day. Any disappointment you may suffer this day, probably will be more than compensated for by a pleasant surprise. There may be a period during the day that the imagination will be responsible for some very fantastic ideas, the principal one being imaginary injustice, or that someone has deliberately ignored you. Anything of a disconcerting nature very likely can be easily rectified, providing you go about it in the right way. Married and engaged couples, and those who would be willing to become formally betrothed, will show good judgment if they are better listeners than talkers this day.

If a woman and June 29 is your birthday, you may have to be careful not to overindulge the cravings of a sweet tooth if you wish to retain a youthful figure. You perhaps are witty, excellent company and very popular. You, in all likelihood, plunge headlong into things with an enthusiasm that leaves your friends gasping. You are stimulated to activity more by inspiration than by impulse. You probably are able to anticipate contingencies. The chances are you will be very fortunate in money matters, and in time may have substantial sums at your disposal. You are very practical in some ways, but apparently theoretical in others. As a professional shopper, entertainer, musician, dancer or broker you might make a huge success. Love will be the corner stone of a happy home that is likely to be established through your marrying well.

The child born on June 29 is apt to be either mechanically or artistically minded. It probably will give evidence of this in its early teens. Encouragement will be needed for this youngster to direct its efforts in the proper channel.

If a man and June 29 is your na-

HOLD OUTING AT SHAWNIGAN LAKE

SHAWNIGAN LAKE, June 28.—The annual picnic of the Shawnigan Lake public school was held on Friday under ideal weather conditions in Mr. H. Joyce's field. An attractive programme of games and races had been drawn up and was run off capably under the energetic leadership of the teachers, J. R. Bowett and Miss K. Armstrong.

GAMES PLAYED

Two softball games occupied the morning, with Tom Lamb's team winning the decision for Division I with a score of 28-11, and John Rathbone's team winning in the Division II game with a score of 19-8.

A decidedly attractive feature of the outing was the ice cream and soft drinks kindly supplied by the Women's Institute and the school board.

WRIGGLING REPTILE BECOMES A ROLLER

CHICAGO, June 28 (U.P.)—Karl P. Schmidt, of the Field Museum of Natural History, announced receipt of a rattlesnake that looks one-way but goes another. Known as a "sidewinder," the reptile rolls—not wriggles—east when facing north, south when facing east, and so on. It is one of 500 specimens collected from the southwestern desert area, Schmidt said.

CHAPTER XXVI

They helped Dee into her coat and Mrs. Carver called a cab. On the way to the apartment Dee stared ahead, dry-eyed, and said, "I don't know why I'm going, Eden. You were right. I—I don't belong, do I? I was only engaged to him. I never told you how bitterly his family opposed our marriage and that he had to beg his brother and sister-in-law to come to the wedding. The others wouldn't come. Now there won't be a wedding and I—I haven't a job—my air—those clothes I bought aren't paid for." Her eyes welled, Eden said, "Don't think of too much now. You've had a terrible shock. Everything will be straightened out and you'll get another job."

Dee looked at her. "I know what you're thinking and what everybody who knows me think . . . that I deserve this for what I did to Brad." "I wasn't thinking it," Eden said.

People in the lobby of the apartment house were talking low and excitedly. When Dee and Eden came in, their eyes followed them to the elevator. Eden heard a woman remark, "That is the girl he was going to marry." The elevator operator did not ask what floor, but stopped at the fifth and stared after them as they walked down the long quiet hall.

Dee knocked and an elderly man-servant opened the door. Seeing them, he looked confused and for a moment Eden thought he was going to refuse to admit them. But changing his mind, he opened the Nolan just came in and is looking after things."

David was here, Eden thought. She put her arm through Dee's. "Let's go home. There is nothing you can do."

Vick had gone to bed, but Mrs. Carver was waiting in the living-room.

"You've been very sweet to me," Dee said gratefully. "You and Eden." She sank in a chair and brushed her hair back from her forehead. "I know I can't sleep. Too many things rushing through my mind. Regrets, I guess. It's too late for regrets." She looked at Eden. "Will you stay with me tonight?"

Kindling the fire anew, Eden stayed with her. Along toward morning, when Dee fell into an exhausted sleep, Eden went to the desk, took paper and pen, and wrote to Neil, telling him about the death of Charles Larrimore. "In a way," she wrote, "I am glad you are detained, because for a few days Dee will need me. It is when people have been hurt that they need their friends. I've just about worn out your letter, reading it over and over. I'm sorry for all the people in the world who aren't as happy as we are, Neil, and who aren't as much in love as we are. Dee won't be leaving us now, and because Mother is fond of her she will partly take my place when I go away with you. Tonight too much has happened for me to write what is in my heart for you. Just this: I love you. I'm waiting for you. I'd wait forever."

She put on her coat and went out to mail it. Winter dawn was breaking. Snow on the lawns was clean and white. Neil . . . not many more days would pass before they would be together again, inseparable. Then, confident, happy in her love, she turned her thoughts to her friends. "I could see what would happen," she thought, "if Vick had not spent an afternoon with Brad and if he were not looking forward so eagerly to Saturday night with him. If Vick should fall in love with Brad . . ."

Going into the house, she stood over the sofa on which Dee lay, sleeping. There were tears under her lashes. Tears for Charles Larrimore, Eden wondered? Tears that her glittering dream had ended? Or were they tears of pity for herself?

PLANS ARE MADE FOR TAG DAY ON JULY 10

A meeting of the St. John Ambulance Brigade, for the purpose of organizing a committee for the joint tag day to be held on July 10 by the ambulance and nursing divisions of the brigade, was held recently in brigade headquarters.

The following members were elected to sub-committees: E. G. Beasly, tag day headquarters; E. J. Harwood, supplies; Miss Sara Jean McKay, newspaper and other advertising; Misses M. and V. Patterson, refreshments; Mr. Stokes, taggers, and Mrs. A. S. Stewart, crockery. Mr. Sellars, chairman of the committee, asked for full reports from members at the Wednesday meeting.

Committee members expressed their appreciation of past courtesies extended to the brigade by the local press, and in view of the urgent need of the organization for medical supplies and other equipment, pledged themselves to make the St. John Ambulance tag day an outstanding success.

Ryder Cup Matches Open Today; Strong Squads Are Chosen

Scotch Foursomes Will Bring Golf Forces of the United States and Great Britain Together—Smith and Sneed on the Side Lines

WALTER HAGEN

SOUTHPORT, England, June 28 (P).—British hopes rose with the wind tonight as eight United States professional golfers staggered through a final practice round against a gale, in preparation for the first half tomorrow, of the American defence of the Ryder Cup, professional golf tournament, on the treeless seaside links of Southport and Ainsdale. Victors in three of the past five biennial matches, but never on British soil, the United States pros will open their battle to retain the international trophy in four Scotch foursome matches tomorrow. On Wednesday they will clash in eight singles tests with what is generally conceded to be the best British team in Ryder Cup history.

BETTING EVEN

Prospects of a gale silenced all talk the invaders were so strong they might win "in a breeze." All betting was at even money.

Fairings for the Scotch foursomes, in which each team plays alternate shots with one ball, follow, with the Britons named first:

Walter Hagen, non-playing captain of the United States squad, left off Horton Smith, unbeaten in his last four cup matches, and Sam Sneed, young West Virginian, who placed second to Guldahl in the United States Open, but left his regular clubs at home and has been off his game ever since.

PERRY BENCHED

British players "benched" for the foursomes by Captain Whitcombe were Alf Perry, British Open champion in 1935, and Sam King, twenty-six-year-old assistant pro from Kent.

Local sentiment credits Hagen with a canny bit of selecting. The British feel that he is sacrificing the Dudley-Nelson combine to Cotton, back in the matches for the first time since 1929, and Padgman, British Open champion, in order to have greater strength in the third and fourth positions.

Cotton, rated Great Britain's outstanding shotmaker, has been playing superbly in practice. Today he raced over the first nine holes in 30, six under par.

LARGE ENTRY IS EXPECTED

Many Dogs Will Be Benched At Outdoor Show Back of Crystal Garden

Officials of the Vancouver Island Dog Fanciers' Association advanced plans during last week for their big jubilee show, which will be staged outdoors at the rear of the Crystal Garden on Wednesday, July 14, commencing at 2:30. Present indications show that an exceptionally large entry list will be one of the features of the event.

A trio of well-known judges have consented to officiate at the show during the day. Jack Creighton, a veteran of many a major show, will look after the non-sporting, working and the terriers, while W. C. Burns will judge the sporting breed. Mrs. W. Alden-Johnson, the well-known Pekingese breeder, will judge the toys. All are noted for the fairness in which they arrive at their decisions.

Prizes will be given in all groups and special awards will go to the Canadian-bred best brace and veteran class. Some handsome prizes have been donated for the best in the show, best novice and best puppy in the show. There will be a grand parade of all dogs during the tea interval. Further information may be secured from Mrs. Chris Bloomfield by phoning G 4788.

The negro preacher had successfully convinced the fact that he had served a term in prison, but years of upright living had not destroyed his fear of exposure.

One Sunday morning, on rising to begin his sermon, his heart sank as he saw in one of the front pews a former cell mate. Quick thinking was necessary. He fixed his eye on the stranger and began impressively: "Ah tak ma text dis mornin' from the sixty-four chapter an' de fo' hundred verse ob' de Gospel ob' St. John, which says: 'Dem as sees me an' knows me an' says nothin', dem will I see later.'"

The time was 14.5, which is .04 of a second short of a world's record.

HAROLD PRETTY

and pencil test. Pretty went to work and moved his way through the field of title seekers in splendid style, eliminating Dick Cox, defending champion, en route to the last bracket.

More tournament experience was the deciding factor in bringing Pretty through to the crown. His opponent, Sangster, playing in his first club final, was obviously nervous at the start, and before he could put himself together, Pretty had him four down early in the match. For the rest of the morning eighteen, Sangster held his own and ended the halfway distance, trailing by five holes. Pretty went seven up at the twentieth, but Sangster rallied desperately in an attempt to close the gap, and won the twenty-second, twenty-third and the next hole to be only four down. Pretty came right back as the match progressed and closed out the argument at the thirtieth, green. Dave Hurdle refereed the final.

More than 17,000 spectators saw play today at the famous Lord's ground in warm, sunny weather. The King visited the ground in the afternoon and was presented to the players.

With seven wickets down for 176 runs at the tea interval, matters did not look particularly bright for the tourists, but Moloney and Roberts added 104 runs before the former was cleverly caught and bowled by Hedley Verity. The pair put on 100 in ninety-four minutes.

R. W. V. Robins changed his bowlers frequently during the afternoon, but none was with much success. The English captain obtained three of the nine Antipodean wickets that fell. J. Parks and Alfred Gover dismissed two each. William Voce and Verity got the other pair.

HEADS BOWLERS

Roberts proved himself a good all-round player by turning in the best bowling average for the best bowling averages for 101 runs. J. Cowie, Auckland speed demon, getting a similar number of 118. H. G. Vivian, slow left-hander, took the remaining two wickets at a cost of 53 runs each.

Resuming this morning, the home players put on 54 runs to complete the innings. Edward Paynter carried his overnight score of 42 to 74 before he was caught out, and Voce reached 27 when he was caught out a fast delivery by Cowie.

BAYS CHALK UP BOXLA VICTORY

Defeat Thunderbirds in Fast Game—Bluebirds Play Oaklands Tomorrow

Taking a 3-1 lead in the first quarter, sharpshooting James Bay squad, of stickhandlers yesterday evening defeated the Thunderbirds, 14-10, in a boxla fixture played at the Royal Athletic Park. The losers scored first when Hocking beat Whitfield, Bays' goalie, from close range. The lead was short-lived, however, and when the eventual winners forged to the front before the period ended, they remained on the right end of the score for the remainder of the game.

Tomorrow evening Fairfield Bluebirds and Oaklands, undefeated in regular play, will meet. The face-off is set for 6:30 o'clock with Ed Popham as referee. The game promises to be one of the best of the season and should attract a large turnout of fans to the local enclosure.

Ed Pridham and Austin Cullin provided most of the scoring punch for the winners and banged home nine goals between them, with Pridham gaining the odd marker. Dakers added a pair, while Evans, Mason and Sothern each counted once.

LEADS SCORES
Eric Holyoak led the Thunderbirds' scoring brigade with four tallies, all scored during the final period rally, when they outclassed James Bay six goals to one. Hocking added a trio of markers, J. Sargent accounted for a pair and Vincent registered the other.

Bays piled up an 8-4 lead at the halfway mark and ran in five tallies in the third quarter without a return. Thunderbirds, outclassed in the three earlier quarters, came to life in the last session and banged home six goals. They staged a great rally but just could not catch their opponents.

The sticks presented by the Victoria Commission went to Mel Luley, of the Thunderbirds, and Stan Clark, of the Bays.

"Chuck" Chapman refereed and the teams were:

James Bay—Dakers, Evans, Allan, Naysmith, Whitfield, Cullin, Pritchard, McDonald, Winterburn, Sothern and Mason.

Thunderbirds—Mann, Hocking, Holyoak, Lumley, McKim, F. Sargent, J. Sargent, McKeech, Malcolm, Anderson, Bailey, Vincent, Irish and Dalby.

Above we see Steve on Exhibition, owned by Sir Victor Sassoon, returning to the scales after the race.

A certain club had replaced its black-coated male staff with young and, in some cases, pretty waitresses. One day a member who had been strongly opposed to the change, arrived at the club for lunch.

"How's the duck?" he asked an attractive waitress, rather gruffly. "Oh, I'm fine," she replied rather perkily. "And how's the old pelican himself?"

THE TUTTS... By Crawford Young

Jane Dixon Says:

THOSE WHO CONFESS THEIR JEALOUSY TO ME SHOULD TAKE WARNING. WHAT SHOULDERERS IN THEIR HEARTS TODAY MAY WRECK THEIR WORLD TOMORROW

A recent murder mystery that shocked the picturesque and peace-loving countryside in which the tragedy occurred and sent criminologists into huddles wherever crime is a subject for social study, carries with it a warning to all thoughtful people.

Jealousy is a dangerous disease!

The person who allows his or her system to become contaminated with the poison of jealousy is likely at any moment to reach the saturation point. When this point is reached, anything can happen.

Frequently something does happen, and what happens is discrediting, disastrous, often lethal.

No emotion known to the human heart can so quickly get beyond control as jealousy. One moment it is a spark, the next it is a flare, the next a blinding explosion. Unfortunately inside the danger zone are subject to suffer all the way from irreparable injury to violent death.

In the death mystery under discussion the principles of the tragedy were two mature persons, a man and a woman of high social standing and excellent accomplishment. The sixty-odd-year-old man and the forty-odd-year-old woman met romance, embraced it, were on their way to the marriage altar when jealousy tossed a match into the highly inflammable material of love and came the explosion!

TWO VERSIONS OF THE CRIME

The woman was found shot through the heart in an abandoned roadbed alongside a lonely highway a few miles from her modest cottage. Her companion on that last ride, the elderly sutor, stood in the dark near the crumpled body of "the finest woman I ever knew," a broken and dishonored man.

What fiend fired the fatal shot that ended the life of a beautiful and beloved woman, and turned a distinguished man into a dismal, shuddering wreck?

Jealousy!

"He shot her in a jealous fury because she withdrew her promise to marry him and insisted on returning his ring," say the friends of the woman.

"She shot herself because she was driven to desperation by the threats and importunities of a jealous contender for her affections, a younger man whom she befriended," say the friends of the elderly sutor. And so from far and wide gather, at the foot of justice, the loved ones, friends, neighbors, the morbidly curious, the experts in the solution of crime mystery to look upon which these bitterly-opposed factions can agree is that jealousy tossed the match.

TRAGEDY BRINGS A WARNING

She was killed by Winter who dealt death rather than surrender to Spring, or a death gun was forced into her hand by Spring who would not surrender her to Winter.

All we know is that a woman who has proved her right to life and the fullness of it becomes a dead woman in a ditch with jealousy chortling horribly over a smoking revolver.

Those of you who confess your jealousy to me and ask me what to do about it, take note. What smoulders in your heart today may blow your world into a shambles tomorrow.

Cast out jealousy before jealousy makes an outcast or an end of you.

(Copyright, 1937, by Bell Syndicate, Inc.)

Little Dora, aged seven, is extremely precocious for her years. She is also inordinately fond of her maternal grandfather, who resides with her parents.

"Mummy," she said, when a fashionable wedding was being discussed, "when I've grown up I shall marry grand-dad."

Her mother told her that such a union would be illegal and finished up by saying: "Well, in any case, I couldn't allow you to marry my father."

"Why not, mum?" queried the precocious one. "You married mine, didn't you?"

Man isn't so efficient. You never saw one who could tuck a piece of fur around his neck to keep his legs warm.

B.C. INTERIOR TO PLAY HOST

Kamloops, Nelson and Other Centres Preparing for Busy Season

British Columbia's Interior intends to have a full measure of the current tourist season, together with numerous conventions and special galas at many points. Two centres are making special plans to entertain Coast lodges next month, Kamloops and Nelson.

Kamloops is preparing to celebrate its 125th anniversary in the middle of July with fitting ceremony. Nelson is preparing an international mining convention on July 14-16, with Hon. G. S. Pearson and other provincial mines officials will speak. Delegates attending the mining convention will be taken by train to Trail and Warfield, for a trip through the largest smelter in the world.

TRAVELERS BACK AT LONG BEACH

A. C. Lovekin has now returned to Long Beach and will reside there for the next few months. Mr. and Mrs. Lovekin have been traveling in Canada and the United States for the past seven months and have been guests at the Empress Hotel for several weeks prior to leaving for the West Coast.

Mr. Lovekin is very enthusiastic about the natural resources and scenic attractions of Vancouver Island and is especially keen about the establishment of a sea-level national park. Projects in which he is actively interested are the protection of forests and the work of reforestation. He has visited every major national park in North America and assisted in establishing a state park programme for California. Some years ago he went to Washington on behalf of the Riverside City Park Board and instituted action in Congress to set aside areas in Palm Canyon for a national monument.

IN SUGAR INDUSTRY
Although Mr. Lovekin made his home in Victoria some years ago the best years of his life were spent on the Hawaiian Islands developing the sugar industry. There he saw the sugar output grow from 60,000 tons to 600,000 tons annually. He witnessed the overthrow of the monarchy and the establishment of the republic, with Sanford B. Dole as president, which in 1898 was followed by annexation to the United States. Mr. Lovekin will continue to develop his holdings at Long Beach, and was accompanied to the West Coast by C. E. Whitney-Griffiths and R. Noble.

At the Theatres

"SLIM" COMES TO DOMINION TODAY

Pat O'Brien Stars in Title Role—Henry Fonda and Margaret Lindsay Featured

"Slim," a Warner Bros. melodrama dealing with a class of young men the movies have overlooked up to now—the lads who string high-tension power lines across the country—will open as the feature attraction at the Dominion Theatre today. Co-stars in the picture and pals in the story are Pat O'Brien and Henry Fonda, the latter carrying the title role and the former acting the part of "Red," who teaches "Slim" the business.

The girl whom they both love is the attractive and capable Margaret Lindsay, who plays a hospital nurse, as she did in the recent "Green Light" and in many another picture.

SHOWBOAT ARRANGES WEEKLY PROGRAMME

The Showboat will be kept busy this week and has some excellent programmes arranged, as follows: Tonight the Shrine Band will be heard; Wednesday, a high-class concert by George Dyke's Orchestra, with assisting artists; Thursday, Birnie's Melodians, in a popular programme, instrumental and vocal interspersed with good comedy; Friday, Gladys Mavins and her Showboat Pierrots, while Saturday will feature the double programme. In the afternoon, at 3:30, the band of the Vancouver Irish Fusiliers, and at 8 o'clock Saturday night, the Vancouver Metropolitan Symphony Orchestra, to be followed by the fireworks display of the seventy-fifth anniversary celebration committee, directly opposite the Showboat seats.

COLUMBIA Few fans know that THEATRE Buck Jones and his famous horse, "Silver," who are appearing in their latest Universal drama, "Boss Rider of Gun Creek," at the Columbia Theatre, are an incorporated company. All business concerning Buck and his horse is transacted through the firm of Silverback, Inc.

AMUSEMENTS

On the Screen
Atlas—"Internes Can't Take Money," starring Joel McCrea.
Capitol—"Bette Davis in 'Marked Woman'."
Columbia—"Boss Rider of Gun Creek," starring Buck Jones.
Dominion—"Pat O'Brien in 'Slim'."
Oak Bay—"Tundra," with Del Cambre.
Plaza—"Mary Brian in 'Romance and Riches'."

ATLAS The first operation in theatre introduced to American medical practice by way of a feature motion picture makes its appearance in "Internes Can't Take Money," a Barbara Stanwyck-Joel McCrea romance, showing for the last times today at the Atlas Theatre, with physicians predicting its future acceptance as a distinct possibility.

CAPITOL "Marked Woman," now theatre at the Capitol Theatre, is a tense melodrama, with night club racketeering for its theme. Bette Davis is starred in the title role, and is supported by such outstanding players as Humphrey Bogart, Eduardo Ciannelli, Isabel Jewell, Rosalind Marquis, Lola Lane, Jane Bryan and Mayo Methot.

OAK BAY Nearly a year elapsed THEATRE in the making of "Tundra," the picture now showing at the Oak Bay Theatre. Interiors were shot at Hollywood with the aid of native Eskimos. But for a full six months the company was on actual location in the Alaskan wilderness and Arctic Circle. Hence, its extraordinary fidelity to detail and atmosphere!

PLAZA Cary Grant, the original THEATRE "tall, dark and handsome" answer to Mae West's prayer, plays the part of a bored millionaire who is cured of "too much money illness" when he goes to work and meets the one girl. The picture is "Romance and Riches," and the girl is Mary Brian, now playing at the Plaza Theatre.
